CN Future Links Mobile Clinics presented by SaskTel

Brad Birnie

CPGA Class A Professional
SGA Provincial Coach

Do you golf? Do you or someone you know want to learn how?

SGA Coach Brad Birnie, in association with the Saskatchewan Golf Association, Royal Canadian Golf Association and other CPGA of Saskatchewan Golf Professionals, is very proud to present the CN Future Links “learn to golf” opportunity to you and your people.

Through the CN Future Links Program, the instructors will introduce and teach the game of golf to as many young people as time and resources will allow. They will deliver a fun, interactive, energetic style to teaching that will leave the participants smiling and wanting more. He promises a high energy learning experience to those wanting to “learn the game of a lifetime” and will never leave a group unsatisfied.

Future Links Clinics available

Level one - Introduction to Golfing for beginners or with little experience

Level two – Teaching the golf swing and short game to kids with playing experience

Level three – Two day lesson program for experienced players

What you do as a student

- Have lots and lots of fun
- Bring golf clubs if you have them

What do you do as an organizer

- Each group has a two-hour session time set aside for the lesson
- Arrange for the kids to bring clubs if they have them
- Make sure there is an adequate area to hold the clinic
- Group the kids according to experience and or age (8 to 12 per group)
- Confirm all information with the instructors on times and dates
- Collect fees ($10 per student) and have names and ages of all participants

Example of a full teaching day (We will try our best to accommodate times)

10:00am to 12:00pm - Beginner kids (ages 9 to 12) total of 8 to 12 kids

1:00pm to 3:00pm - Beginner kids (ages 13 to 17) total of 8 to 12 kids

3:00pm to 5:00pm - Experienced players total of 8 to 12 kids
